

SEND Local Offer

This easy read tells you about what the SEND Local Offer is and gives you information about the website.

The website can help you find information about services and can signpost you to people who can help.

What is the SEND Local Offer?

The SEND Local Offer is a website for children and young people aged 0-25 years with Special Educational Needs and Disabilities (SEND) and their families.

The website gives you information about local services and ideas of places and people you can contact for help.

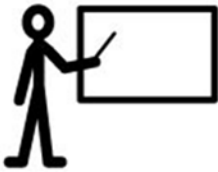

This includes:

Education

Such as:

- Special Educational Needs support and EHC plans.

- Schools and colleges.
- Other educational specialists.

- Playgroups and nurseries.

Health

Such as:

- GPs.

- Healthy family teams.

- Children's nursing and therapy services.

- Emotional and mental health support.

- Other specialist health support services.

Social Care

Such as:

- Early help and family support.

- Neurodevelopmental support.

- Short breaks.

- Children's disability services.

Who is it for?

The SEND Local Offer is for:

- Children and young people with special educational needs and/or disabilities.

- Parents and carers.

- Individuals, groups and organisations that work with children, young people and families.

How can I find the website?

Go online, and in the web browser type:

yournottsdirectory.org.uk/nottinghamshiresendlocaloffer

This will take you to the website.

You can use:

- A computer.

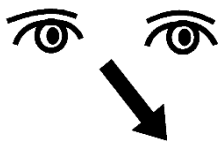

- A tablet.

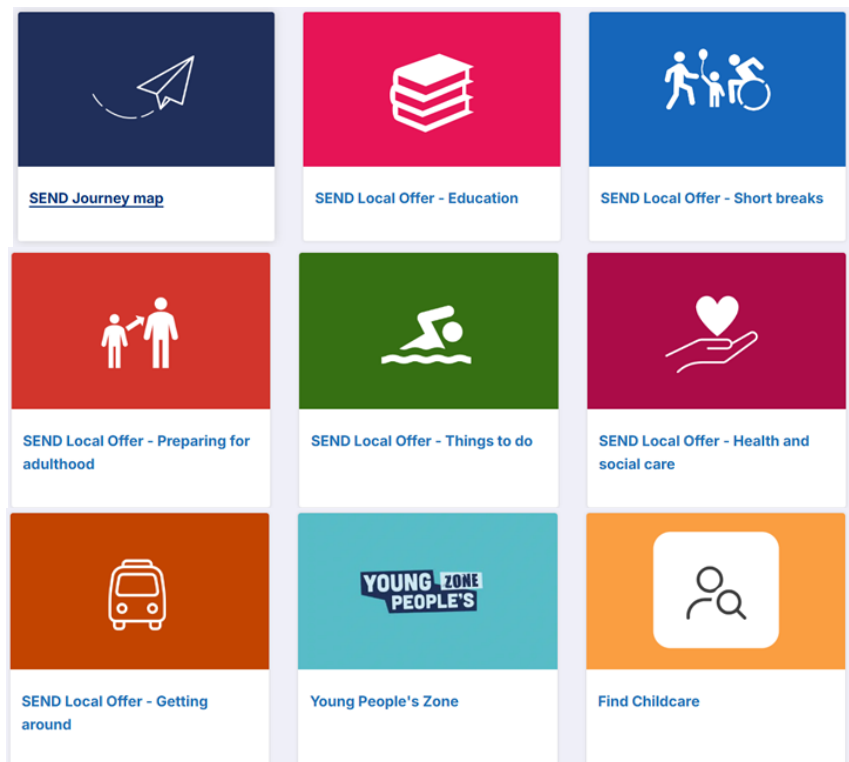

- A smart phone.

What information can I find on the website?

The website looks like this and has different areas of information.

Organisations and providers can add information about the services and the support they offer.

Where an assessment or referral is needed to access services, we have asked providers to make this clear.

Once you have searched, a list of support and services available will appear on the screen.

If you click on one of the services listed, it will give you more information about it.

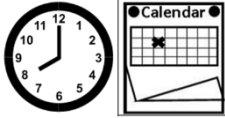

This includes:

- Contact details.

- Address details.

- Time and date details.

- A description about the services or support offered.

Where can I get help to find information?

- Phone the Customer Services Team on 0300 500 80 80

- County Council Libraries.

- Ask people who support and help you.
