Fancy getting creative?

FREE to attend, with materials and refreshments provided.

Come along to CompassionART for a relaxed afternoon of simple arts and crafts, a cuppa and some friendly company.

No experience needed and no need to book – just come along and join in at your own pace.

Thursdays, 1pm–3pm
During term time, from 5 November 2026

The Pauleen Davies Centre
25 Prospect Street, Radford, NG7 5QE

Open to adults aged 18+ in Nottinghamshire.
No diagnosis, no Hospice connection or referral needed.

Brought to you by Nottinghamshire Hospice

Registered charity No.509759

Come and give it a try!

CompassionART is a relaxed, friendly group where you can enjoy simple creative activities, have a cuppa and meet other people. Activities may include colouring, painting and drawing, collage, seasonal crafts, simple textile crafts and clay modelling.

Open to adults aged 18+ in Nottinghamshire.

You don't need any previous experience, a diagnosis, an existing connection with Nottinghamshire Hospice or a professional referral.

Finding us

The Pauleen Davies Centre, 25 Prospect Street, Radford, NG7 5QE

The Pauleen Davies Centre is accessible, with parking available, and around five minutes walk from frequent bus services on Alfreton Road.

If you need personal care while attending, you'll need to bring your own carer.

If transport is making it difficult for you to attend, please get in touch.

If you'd like to talk to someone to find out more:

0115 962 1222
info@nottshospice.org
www.nottshospice.org/compassionART

CompassionArt has been funded by The Health Lottery Foundation. The Foundation distributes money raised from players of The Health Lottery to projects that unite people to improve health, wellbeing and happiness. Thanks to players of The Health Lottery for supporting our work.